COMMUNITY COUNTERINTELLIGENCE AND SECURITY
COUNTERMEASURES OFFICE

MISSION

The Community Counterintelligence and Security Countermeasures Office (CCISCMO), Intelligence Community Staff supports the DCI, in part, by collating, editing, and publishing, in accordance with National Security Council instruction, an annual assessment of the foreign intelligence threat to the United States. It also, within the context of that assessment, evaluates Community counterintelligence and security countermeasures policies, programs, priorities, and activities. The office provides staff support to the Senior Interagency Group-Intelligence (SIG-I) on counterintelligence and countermeasures matters and serves as the Secretariat and Staff to the interagency groups for counterintelligence and for security countermeasures, which operate under the aegis of the SIG-I. It advises and supports the DCI and the Community regarding protection of sensitive compartmented information (SCI), protection of intelligence sources or methods, unauthorized disclosure of classified information, as well as by the conduct of ad hoc assigned studies. The office provides a variety of services of common concern for the Community,
